Great Reasons Us [ You, I, and All Here ] Will Unite Peace

Words To Live By

Are thou dejected?
Is thy mind o'ercast?
To chase thy gloom,
Go fix some weighty truth;
Chain down some passion; do some generous good;
Took ignorance to see, or grief to smite;
Correct thy friends, befriended thy greatest foe;
Be just in all things; make amends
For follies past, and, with warm heart,
Forgive, and be forgiven. Let work out words:
Thy virtue prove. Go act as well as prate,
And then thy conquest will be strait;
Thy reprimands wait.—ANON

THE province of the historian is to gather the threads of the past ere they slide forever his grasp and weave them into a harmonious web to which the art preservative may give immortality. Therefore he who would rescue from fast gathering oblivion the deeds of a community and send them on to futurity in an imperishable record should deliver a plain unvarnished tale.
